MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

1 (a) Economic Scenario of plywood Industries, its Industry structure in India and challenges before the industry

The plywood industry is divided into the organised and unorganised sectors and the former possesses significant growth potential. The implementation of GST and raw material sourcing constraints are expected to accelerate the shift to branded products. With a market size of around Rs. 20000 crores, the plywood industry in India offers huge growth potential for organised players. Overall, the industry growth has been moderate at sub-10% levels as against branded players' growth of 25%+ over the last five years.

b) Opportunities and Threats.

A substantial increase in the country's population is one of the most influencing factors for the increased use of wood and wood products. Currently, the base of 1.28 billion is expected to reach 1.47 billion by 2030. This increased population will influence and accelerate demand for housing, furniture and interior décor.

India is one of the youngest nations in the world with a median age of 27 years. This young population, with their increased power to consume and spend, has high aspirations. The increased ease of home ownership and easy home loans are sure to surge furniture as well as home requirements in the near future.

India has a huge potential market for imported hardwood veneer and laminates, the wood processing industry in India is highly unorganised which hampers its market development. Also, the standards remain much below par since most of the wood work is handled by individual craftsmen or by small workshops.

Growing restrictions and bans on cutting down trees has also increased the need for looking out for new perspectives and raw material suppliers.

c) Review of Performance:

During the year under review, the performance of the company is up to the mark. There is a substantial increase in overall turnover & profitability of the Company as compared to previous years.

d) Outlook:

With the renewed focus on the countries housing and infrastructure sector, Company is positioned to attract good market share.

e) Risks and Concerns:

Risk associated with every business transaction could have material impact on the performance of the Company. The Company has a risk management team which evaluates the risk associated with each transaction and takes necessary initiatives for balancing the risk.

2. Internal Control and Analysis.

The Company has adequate internal control procedures commensurate with its size and nature of business. The objectives of these procedures are to ensure efficient use and protection of company's resources accuracy in financial reporting and due compliance of statutory requirements and to ensure safety inside the factory during the operation.

3. Human Resources Development / Industrial Relations.

The company puts high importance to growth and motivation of its manpower resources with an aim to encourage a productive, participative and collaborative work culture through appropriate intervention. This has helped the company in building dedicated team for creating value for the company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF M/s UV BOARDS LIMITED

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of M/s UV Boards Limited ("the company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2015, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statement that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the company in accordance with the accounting principle generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statement based on our audit. We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made there under.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessment, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the company has in place an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements.

NOTE-1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES1. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- a. These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, the provisions of the Act (to the extent notified) and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.
- b. The preparation of financial statements requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements. Management believes that these estimate and assumptions are reasonable and prudent. However, actual results could differ from estimate.

2. FIXED ASSETS

- a. Fixed Assets are stated at cost of construction or acquisition less accumulated depreciation. All other expenses including taxes, duties, freight incurred to bring the fixed assets to a working condition are also treated as the cost of the fixed assets
- b. Fixed Assets are stated at acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation or amortization and cumulative impairment.

3. INVESTMENTS

Investments are made in long term basis and valued at cost of acquisition to the company. Provision, if any, for diminution in value, thereof is made, wherever such diminution is other than temporary.

4. RETIREMENT BENEFITS TO EMPLOYEES

Defined Contribution Plans

The Company's contribution to Provident Fund is deposited with Regional Provident Fund Commissioner and is charged to the Profit & Loss Account every year.

Defined Benefit Plan

The Net Present Value of the Company's obligation towards Gratuity to employees is actuarially determined based on the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains & losses are recognized in the Profit & Loss account.

5. INVENTORIES

Inventories are valued at cost or net realisable value, whichever is lower. Cost for the purpose of valuation of stocks purchased is determined by using the FIFO method, net of Cenvat credit (if any)

Raw Materials: Raw materials are valued at cost or net realisable value, whichever is lower.

Work-in-progress: Work in progress is valued at cost of raw materials and overheads up to the stage of completion.

Finished Goods: Finished goods are valued at the lower of the cost or net realisable value.

6. DEPRECIATION

Depreciation on Fixed assets is provided on Straight Line Method at the rates calculated based on the useful life of the assets in the manner prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013.

7. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS

- a. Transactions in foreign currency are accounted for at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transactions.
- b. Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies (such as cash, receivable, payable etc.) outstanding at the end of reporting period, are translated at exchange rate prevailing as at the end of reporting period.
- c. Non-monetary items denominated in foreign currency, (such as Investment, Fixed Assets etc.) are valued at exchange rate prevailing on the date of transaction. Any gains or losses arising due to differences in exchange rates at the date of translation or settlement are accounted for in the statement of Profit & Loss under the Exchange Gain/ Loss account.

8. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when sufficient risks and rewards are transferred to customers, which is generally on dispatch of goods and sales are stated net of returns and discounts.

- a. Dividend income is recognized when the company's right to receive dividend is established.
- b. Interest Income is recognized on time proportion basics

9. PRIOR PERIOD ITEMS

Significant items of income and expenditure which relate to prior accounting periods (if any) are shown as appropriation of the Profit under the head "Prior Period Items", other than those occasioned by events occurring during or after the close of the year and which are treated as relatable to the current year.

10. TAXES ON INCOME

Provision for current tax made as per the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

- a. Deferred Tax Liability or Asset resulting from "timing difference" between book and taxable profit is accounted for considering the tax rate and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted as on the balance sheet date.
- b. Deferred Tax Asset is recognized and carried forward only to the extent that there is virtual certainty with convincing evidence that there will be sufficient future income to recover such deferred tax asset.
